History of Wood County

In the winter of 1827, Daniel Whitney of Green Bay obtained a permit from the Winnebago granting him the privilege of making shingles on the Wisconsin River. He employed 22 Stockbridge Indians and conveyed them to the mouth of the Yellow River. In 1831 Daniel Whitney obtained a permit from the War Dept. to erect a sawmill and cut timber on the Wisconsin River. In 1831-2, assisted by his nephew and A.B. Sampson, built the first mill at the place known as Whitney's Rapids, below Point Basse, and about 10 miles south of Wisconsin Rapids. Messrs, Grignon & Merrill, having also obtained a permit, built a mill at Grignon's Rapids in 1836. These two establishments were the first lumbering plants on the Wisconsin River in Wood County.

Wood County was named after Joseph Wood, who came here from Illinois in 1848. Under Chapter 54 Laws of 1856, present Wood County was detached from Portage County. The same chapter directed that the town board of supervisors of the town of Grand Rapids in Wood County, shall be the board of supervisors of Wood County until a county board shall be elected and qualified as provided by the revised statutes of the same act. The first election was held in November 1856. The first county officers were: County Judge Joseph Wood; Sheriff Benjamin Buck; District Attorney L.P. Powers; Surveyor H.A. Temple; Clerk of Circuit Courts L. Kromer; County Clerk L.P. Powers; Treasurer I.L. Moser; Register of Deeds, L. Kromer. The county board met for the first time October 8, 1856.

The first courthouse was a hall in the Magnolia House which was located on the corner of Ninth and Washington Ave. The first court was held there in 1857. The date of the first warranty deed recorded was Oct 1856. The first building actually erected as a courthouse in Wood County was built in Grand Rapids on a spot near the river. At the time of application, both must submit certified copies of their birth certificates, driver’s license or Wisconsin ID with your current address, (if your address is not current on your driver’s license, please bring other proof of residence), and social security numbers. Persons who were previously married must submit proof of how their last marriage ended by bringing their Judgment of Divorce or death certificate.

WAITING PERIOD: Application must be made to the County Clerk's Office at least 5 days before the marriage, providing all qualifications are met.
RESIDENCE: Application must be made in the county where at least one party has resided for at least 30 days. If both parties are out-of-state residents, application must be made in the county where the ceremony is to be performed.

OATH: Parties must take oath that marriage will be lawful and that information given in the application as to age, relationship and prior marriages is correct.

EXPIRATIONS: A marriage license is valid for 30 days after it is issued.

MARRIAGE CEREMONY

OFFICIALS: Judges of Court of Record, ordained ministers and priests and Court Commissioners may perform the ceremony.

WITNESSES: Two adult (18 years of age) witnesses are required in addition to person officiating, but do not have to be in the wedding party.
