INTENT & SYNOPSIS: To authorize out-of-state training and travel for the Sheriff.

FISCAL NOTE: No cost to the County. The training and associated expenses, including travel, lodging and meals, will be paid for by the National Institute of Corrections (NIC).

WHEREAS, The National Sheriffs' Institute (NSI), sponsored by the National Institute of Corrections (NIC) and the National Sheriffs' Association (NSA), is designed to enhance leadership skills as you take on the challenges of your first term as sheriff. It is the only executive leadership program designed specifically for first-term sheriffs. It was first developed and delivered in the early 1970s and has changed over the years to meet the evolving needs of first-term sheriffs. The program is held in Aurora, Colorado from April 15, 2019 through April 19, 2019, and

WHEREAS, the training and networking will provide opportunities to network with colleagues from across the country, and

WHEREAS, Wood County will have many opportunities to share knowledge and learn from others, and

WHEREAS, the training will give the Sheriff training of highly specialized guidelines and practices applicable to the Wood County Sheriff's Department, and

WHEREAS, the Wood County Public Safety Committee has authorized out-of-state travel when necessary, and

WHEREAS, approval to attend this conference has been approved by the Public Safety Committee on February 19, 2019, at a special meeting, and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Wood County Sheriff's Department send Sheriff Shawn Becker to the National Sheriffs' Institute in Aurora, Colorado April 15, 2019 through April 19, 2019.
