MONTHLY REPORT TO THE JUDICIAL AND LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE December 2017

1. Intellectual Property issues. About every year or so I receive a question pertaining to intellectual property rights and the question usually starts with: "Did we violate the law by" and my answer is usually "yes, we did." The latest situation comes out of Edgewater Haven and the scenario seems rather innocuous, playing CD movies for residents in a group setting. Whether the county buys or rents the CD doesn't matter, we need a license to play it to a group of people and there are entities out there that can grant such licenses but they aren't necessarily cheap. There probably isn't a way for me to prevent such violations from arising in the future as I don't always think in terms of intellectual property rights when considering matters but I can do some educating such that the awareness of the issue is at a higher level. To that end, I will prepare a memo to the department heads on it and talk about it at a department head meeting. I will also arrange to have the memo and all of the other memos I have prepared for the board collected and put in one spot for easier reference by staff and supervisors alike.
2. Jason Rodeghier. Mr. Rodeghier is a former employee at Norwood who was terminated for refusing to go to his assigned work location and work. He had appealed his termination through the county's Complaint Resolution Process, including a review by the county board, and lost at each stage of the process. Mr. Rodeghier then filed a complaint with the consolidated state Equal Rights Division and the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (ERD/EEOC) and lost at the first stage. It was thought and reported by me that Rodeghier had not timely appealed those ERD/EEOC determinations but we have now found out that he did timely appeal. It is just that neither he nor the ERD advised the county of the appeal until now, when we received notice the case has been set for a pre-hearing conference. The county is represented here by counsel for our insurer, Chubbs Insurance. We are getting close to using up our deductible on this case ($10,000) so soon all of the ongoing costs will be at the expense of the insurer, yet the insurer has verified that the counsel does directly represent the county and not the insurer, per the policy. Although I wouldn't normally keep you posted on a case of this nature unless it appeared the county was likely to be facing uncovered damages, due to the more political nature of this case, I will keep you updated. It is worth noting that Mr. Rodeghier has directly contacted county board supervisors, both telephonically and via email, in the past. Any such attempts at contact with you by Mr. Rodeghier that might pertain to the case should be refused and brought to my attention.
3. Advice. Sometimes there isn't a complete understanding between the folks who seek my advice, like supervisors, department heads and employees, and me with regard to why I am giving the advice and whether it is confidential or not. I give advice because it is part of my job, not because I advocate for or against a position being taken. Sometimes I am asked how to accomplish something and I disagree with the action being proposed. I may comment on what I think on the topic and why, but my thoughts are hardly relevant. My job is to give advice irrespective of whether I support what is being proposed. By the same token, one shouldn't assume that I support an action that I have given advice in regards to. Likewise, if you want advice on how to counter something I have given advice on how to accomplish, just ask. Years ago retiring supervisor Joe Raubul said to me that he told a new supervisor if you need to know how to get something done to ask Kastenholz. The new supervisor was at that time opposed to some litigation the county had brought and was concerned about getting legal service from me.

Reportedly, Joe stated, "who cares what Kastenholz thinks, he works for us, ask him your question and he'll get you the answer." Joe was right.

A related issue, one that I sometimes struggle with, has to do with the confidentiality of the advice I give. Obviously HIPAA and other federal and state laws control what can be shared with regard to many of the cases I work on but my focus here is more on the politicized matters and the procedural advice I give. It isn't confidential but I am not always willing to fully share who I told what to. Let me explain. Say for instance a county board supervisor asked how to go about creating the position of county executive. I then advise them how to do it (even though I don't support it, but no one cares about that). Then supervisor B asks me if I have given information on how to create the executive position. I will confirm that I have done so but I won't say to whom I gave the advice. If supervisor B wants to know how to force me to say to whom I gave the advice, I will (reluctantly) state that they can go to my oversight committee and if the oversight committee says to divulge the information, then I will do so. That is the process I have worked out over the years but never actually wrote it down. If you don't like it, well, I march to the beat of your drum, so let's collectively discuss it so you can give me the marching orders you want.

Please find the enclosed information which has been updated to include recent additions and/or changes that have been made due to the reconstruction of USH 10 and changes to connecting road. These changes are being made to correct an address range for a north-south portion of USH 10 which now duplicates an address range in the western portion of USH 10. Please note -- the changes listed are effective as of November 27, 2012.

Bruce...

When I went to order your checks yesterday, the address of 9562 State Highway 10 Marshfield is listed as a non-address with the United States Postal Service. When I look up Brucos Auto in the new phone book, it shows as 9725 State Hwy 13 Vesper, WI. Which is the correct address? Was the street address changed because of the new Highway 10 and never changed on your checks? Please let me know, as I can't order your checks until I can verify the address. You can either call me at (715)652-2105 or email me at jmarth@pioneerbank.net.
Thank You!

BULLYING—What is it?

9-12

What The State Does To Tax Paying Citizens Everyday

Bullying is when one person hurts or threatens someone in his or her peer group. Anyone can be a bully, and bullying can be carried out in different ways. Physical bullying may include shoving, pushing, and hitting. Words and non-verbal behavior can also be used to hurt someone by spreading rumors, taking part in gossip, or threatening someone with looks, notes, or pictures. Bullies may choose to pick on peers who are smaller or younger than they are, or who are from a different race or culture, or they may pick on someone who is different in some other way.

Bullying might happen once or over and over again. If bullying includes physical or sexual harm or damage to property, makes you feel intimidated or afraid to go to school, or disrupts the regular school day in a threatening way, it is probably also assault or harassment. These behaviors are against school rules and many are also against the law. If a bully attacks you or steals something from you, you can report the incident to the police. You can also report school-related bullying to your school teachers, counselors, or administrators, and you should expect the school to take action to confront the behaviors, discipline the bully, and ensure your safety at school, traveling to and from school, and at school activities. Check with an adult in your school to find out more about your rights.

If you are a victim of bullying, you might:

- Feel angry, sad, lonely, or depressed.
- Feel like you have no friends.
- Find that you are getting into fights.
- Want to hurt someone else or yourself.
- Feel like taking steps to defend yourself.
- Feel helpless to stop the bullying.
- Feel hopeless that anything can be done.
- Be afraid to go to school, or feel anxious all the time.
- Feel bad about yourself.

See one of the MHS administrators if you have questions, concerns, or would like more information about how to handle a situation that involves bullying or harassment. The link for reporting a bullying incident is: <http://marsh.schoolwires.net/cms/module/selectsurvey/TakeSurvey.aspx?SurveyID=116>

Let's all work together to make Marshfield High School a safe, friendly, and "bullying free" learning environment.

SERVICE, the act of helping or doing work for someone

Synonyms; favor, kindness, good turn, help.

Members of congress like to call what they do "public service";
it sounds lofty, noble, and selfless.

They also don't mind talking about their annual base salaries ($174,000 for both congressman and senators) or retirement plans because these too sound "reasonable".

But did you know that, over and above these,
they also receive an annual expense allowance?

In The House of Representatives it's called an MRA.
The average allowance for each representative this year will be about $1,200,000 or 7 times more than their base salary.

In the Senate it's called an SOPOEA.
The average allowance for each senator this year will be about $3,300,000 or 19 times more than their base salary.

As the congressmen and senators squabble about the current U.S. budget, ask yourself this;

Are they really servants, or are they takers?

The first step toward a Constitutional Amendment to term limit members of congress is simple...

share this information with others and start talking about it.
